

Christopher Johnson is proud to serve on the Board of Directors of the Illinois Theatre Association. A lifelong performer and proponent of the arts, Mr. Johnson currently serves as the Associate Director of Legal Services for Lawyers for the Creative Arts, a Chicago-based nonprofit organization that provides pro bono legal services and educational programming for artists and arts organization. His writing on the intersection of law and theatre has been featured in such publications as the Berkeley Journal of Entertainment and Sports Law and the Michigan Business and Entrepreneurial Law Review. After completing his undergraduate studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign, Mr. Johnson earned his law degree from the IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. He is licensed to practice law in the State of Illinois and in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. He serves as Vice-Chair of the Chicago Bar Association's YLS Creative Arts committee and regularly lectures on arts and entertainment topics at various colleges, law schools, and conferences across Chicago. He continues to perform in his "free time" and regularly works as an actor in musical theatre productions throughout Chicago and the surrounding suburbs.