

Nathaniel is currently an English and Fine Arts Teacher at Downers Grove South High School. During his 14 year teaching career, he has had the opportunity to engage in secondary theatre education in multiple ways. He has experience as the overall director of a high school theatre program, a technical director, a play director, and a speech coach. Through the direction and production of over various plays and musicals, he has worked closely with students and other Illinois teachers to create valuable theatrical and educational experiences for students at his schools. That experience extends to the classroom, where he has taught various acting, technical theatre, directing, film, literature, composition, and advanced placement courses. Nathaniel has also served the ITA as a member since his college years at Illinois State University and through the Illinois High School Theatre Festival, where he has filled several associate director positions, served as Festival Director, and worked as an assistant producer on several All-State productions.
